SEATTLE — Ross Dress for Less will open a store in July at the Rainier Square Plaza Shopping Center in south Seattle, the landlord said in a news release.

Ross is leasing 25,692 square feet from Weingarten Realty in the shopping center at Rainier Avenue South and South Charleston Street, Weingarten said.

Based in Pleasanton, Calif., Ross Stores operates 904 Ross Dress for Less stores selling apparel, accessories, footwear and home fashions at a discount.

Neil Soskin, a vice president/director of leasing for Weingarten's Western region said, "Ross Dress for Less is one of the nation's largest and most popular off-price retailers in the country, and they are a perfect tenant to round out the business mix in this growing neighborhood center."

Mary Gezon of Seattle Pacific Realty represented Ross in the transaction.
